

TRADE MARK SEARCHER

Spruson & Ferguson is one of Australia's leading patent and trade mark attorney firms in Australia committed to providing a fully integrated service for the protection, commercialisation, enforcement and management of all forms of intellectual property including patents, trade marks and designs.

An opportunity is available for a Trade Mark Searcher with at least two year's experience, to join our firm.

Working as part of a team, you will be highly skilled in trade mark searching procedures and practices with experience in mainframe, ATMOSS and IPONZ databases. An investigative nature, good organisational and self-management skills, computer literacy and lateral thinking will hold you in good stead for this position.

If you have the experience we would like to hear from you. Please forward your resume with a covering letter to:
